CRIME SUMMARY:

On Wednesday, June 11, 2008 at 1:13 pm, two Hispanic suspects enter the jewelry store located in the 14000 block of Chino Hills Parkway in the City of Chino Hills. The two suspects pose as customers and ask the store employee questions about jewelry. The employee walks towards the suspects and as one of the suspects distracts her, the other suspect produces a handgun and points it at the employee. The employee is forced to the rear of the store where she is tied up by one of the suspects. The other suspect in the front of the store opens the door and allows a third suspect, identified as Iraheta, to come into the store. The suspects remove jewelry from the display cases and flee after emptying the cases.
